Charitable Giving for Clients

As a professional advisor, whether you are a lawyer, accountant, financial planner, or insurance agent, you have a unique opportunity to provide information about charitable giving as a valued service to clients.

One way you can assist your clients to maximize their personal benefit is by initiating an open discussion on planned giving. Asking the question “Are there any charitable or community needs you would like to consider?” is a great way to explore your client’s interests.

The staff at Second Harvest Canada would be pleased to work with you and your client to ensure their philanthropic wishes become a reality.
